Everything in its Time reminded me a lot of Outlander (which is one of my favorite romances ever!). A modern day girl, Katherine St. Claire, manages to go back in time to the 15th century and sleep with a sexy Scottish Laird named Ian. She and he both think it's a dream, but feel incredibly lost without each other.

A key to this passage is found a few verses later: "He has made everything beautiful in its time" (Ecclesiastes 3:11). The proper activity at the right time, bringing about God's purposes, is a beautiful part of God's overall plan. A tapestry, viewed from the back, seems a chaotic and unlovely work; but the maker of the tapestry has a ...
