I never would have guessed that Civil War historian Shelby Foote could be the author of a complex psychological drama but Love in a Dry Season cries out to be dissected reading groups who like to delve into the dark inner workings of the human psyche. It has shown me why the word grotesque is so often used when discussing Southern Gothic writing. In LiaDS, the term genteel is no more than a ...

Love in a Dry Season by Shelby Foote - Goodreads

This is an unforgettable memoir: written with a journalist's eye for detail and political context and a father's heart. It offers valuable insight into conditions in the AIDS-ridden areas of Africa and into the understaffed, undersupplied, politically embattled bureaucracies in those emergent countries.

An Orphan's Tale: 'Love in the Driest Season' : NPR

In Love In The Driest Season, Tucker's passionate memoir of Chipo's deliverance, he and his wife try every tactic their international savvy has given them. They dot every "I" and cross every "I" on the reams of paper they're required to file—and then the file gets "lost" in a sea of folders in a chaotic sorting room, where they must find it themselves.
